

Old Humpty

OLD HUMPTY 5101A

Vernon Allen Shafter, 1940

Old Humpty he died and he rose again And he rose again Hey hey and he rose again.

They placed on his grave a horse-apple tree A horse-apple tree Hey hey a horse apple tree.

The apple tree grew and it grew and it grew It grew and it grew Hey hey the horse-apple grew.

The apples got ripe and began to fall Began to fall Hey hey and began to fall.

The old woman went out to gather them all To gather them all Hey hey to gather them all.

Old Humpty he rose and he gave her a knock He gave her a knock Hey hey and he gave her a knock.

The old woman went off to ti-hippity hop Ti-hippity-hop Hey hey ti-hippity-hop.
